"The righteous will live by faith." (Romans 1:17)

COMMUNION AS AN ACT OF NOURISHMENT

Paul was called to travel all over the known world and teach people from all over about God. As part of his travels, Paul would teach people about the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and encourage people to live holier lives, dedicated to following Jesus. In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes that he is eager to visit them to share with them "spiritual gifts" and so that they can be "mutually encouraged" by one another. In his letter to the Galatians, Paul writes about the various fruits of the spirit that grow from a life of following Christ. In communion, we celebrate that God has given us the Holy Spirit to bless us with spiritual gifts, and that, like Paul, we can encourage one another and lift each other up.

Talk about it: Which spiritual gifts do you have? Which ones do you see in the people around you? How can you encourage them to grow their gifts this week?
